

Air Force Knowledge Now

Air Force KM

Ms. Sandy Speake
Chief, Strategic Organizational Development
And Lessons Learned
HQ AFMC/A8C/A9L

Digital Government Institute's
DoD Knowledge Management Conference
15 October 2009, Washington, DC

Integrity ★ Service ★ Excellence

Air Force Knowledge Now

AFKN – the most enduring AF KM effort

- Contains over 15K virtual workspaces (CoPs) for 350K users
- Expertise location, collaboration, document sharing, wikis, blogs & professional networking

- Why it's successful –
 - Power to the lowest levels
 - Boundary-less in a world of firewalls
 - A grass-roots vs. top down model
 - Leadership support due to operational impact

Constant Change Management is critical to success!

- Other AF KM efforts exist in the areas of:
 - Learning
 - Combat & special operations support
 - Research, development & testing

Our greatest challenge...Our greatest wish

- KM efforts are diverse but may be sub-optimized
- Increased unity of KM effort across AF
- Working towards a comprehensive AF KM strategy

